PNR

Plataforma Nuevos Realizadores

Plataforma Nuevos Realizadores (the New Directors Platform) is a national non-profit association created in 1987 and founded in 1989 by a group of filmmakers and emerging producers, and which has counted among its partners, at the beginning of their film careers, with directors such as Icíar Bollain, Fernando León, Jaime Rosales, Chema de la Peña, Juan Vicente Córdoba, Manane Rodríguez, Mónica Laguna, Miguel del Arco, Esteban Crespo and a long list of renowned filmmakers.

The PNR was born with the aim of achieving a public space for new filmmakers, for the screening and promotion of their short films, and also serve as a platform for their first long works. Today the technical possibilities have changed enormously but, in essence, the difficulties of those who begin their film careers are similar, before more focused on production and today more lacking perhaps at the level of diffusion. Therefore, it has been establishing collaboration agreements on issues related to the exhibition, regulations and audiovisual training with public and private entities, such as Filmoteca Española, Cineteca, ICAA, Community of Madrid, Madrid City Council, Academy of Cinema, SGAE and SGAE Foundation, EGEDA, audiovisual associations of the sector, etc.

Our activities include the organization of the Madrid Film Festival (festivalcinemadrid.es) that will celebrate its 30th edition, the web history of the Spanish short film (historianuevosrealizadores.es) that contains more than 200 short films for the enjoyment of the good short film, and periodic exhibitions of the works of our associates which bring more than 8,000 spectators a year to theaters. We also collaborate with institutions such as the ICAA for the dissemination of the short film in schools and internationally with the creation of Shorts From Spain (shortsfromspain.com) and Aulacorto (aulacorto.mecd.gob.es).

Coordinadora del Cortometraje Español

Coordinadora del Cortometraje Español (Spanish Short Film Coordinator) was founded thirteen years ago in order to represent, defend and promote Spanish short films, as well as to act as a representative of the national short film industry with institutions and organizations, public and private, being the only association that includes directors, producers, artists and technicians, managers, journalists, distributors, service companies, festivals and other institutions.

Coordinadora has worked in launching projects such as Aulacorto.com (a film literacy programme that introduces short films in schools), the releasing of Shorts from Spain (an international promotion catalogue for Spanish shorts), as well as the organization of "El Día + Corto" (The Shortest Day) every December 21st. Along these lines of work, the association is developing the Spanish Short Film Archive, an online platform that will aggregate all the information about the Spanish Short Film Industry.

Coordinadora is also partnering with regional and national institutions in specific programmes and initiatives to promote and spread internationally the Spanish Short Films, their professionals, their companies and festivals.

These activities are oriented to the creation of an independent and competent organism aimed to cover the whole spectrum related to production, promotion, conservation, distribution, training, communication and innovation of Short Films in Spain.

Asociación de la Industria del Cortometraje (AIC)

Asociación de la Industria del Cortometraje (Association of the Short Film Industry) aims to bring together companies and freelancers who are devoted professionally to the production / distribution of short films, to defend the interests of the short film industry before any public institution (state or regional), in international markets, in negotiations with televisions, unions and any organism of the audiovisual industry before which the companies dedicated to short films need to be represented, serving as a representative of its members before those organizations.

What do we offer? representation and a valid spokesperson before several organizations, institutions and televisions. Promotion of the distribution of short films in theaters through an effective program of grants from ICAA and similar regional organizations. Fight for the public television operators commitment to invest in short films (co-production and broadcasting rights). Stand up for the growth of current public production grants for short films. All this and much more.
